Dear Ms. Spears:

My name is Rob Kemenyfi, the CEO of Nafty (NaftyArt.com), a blockchain-based multi-level NFT, subscription platform, marketplace and token/payment platform for adult content creators.

We would like to offer you $10 million for the use of exclusive nude content to sell on our service as one-of-a-kind NFTs, with substantial ongoing royalties paid directly to you in perpetuity.

We realize that you are currently locked in a stressful (and costly) legal battle over your conservatorship, so we also are offering the option of paying your legal expenses directly with the $10 million to ease your burden.

Nafty, which also include a premium fan club, content subscription and artist marketplace, sold out of its Nafty tokens in less than 25 minutes during its pre-sale – an excellent sign of things to come should we forge a future partnership.

Please consider our services, as we believe this deal will not only significantly help you financially, but offer you a taste of the unbridled freedom you have long been yearning for.

Sincerely,

Rob Kemenyfi
CEO, NaftyArt.com
